By Appointment to H.E. SIR ARTHUR H. NEDY, H.E. Admiral RYDER, and H.I.H. GRAND DUKE ALEXIS OF RUSSIA, having returned from his tour to Peking and the North Ports, has now the satisfaction to offer LABORERS, CHOICER, and more COMPLETE COLLECTION OF VIEWS, than any other in the Empire. A Panorama of HONKOW, and all of the surrounding country, including KINGS CHOW, have recently been added to the above. IVORY MINIATURES of superior excellence and high finish, painted by native artists—most carefully supervised, from $7.

D. K. GARRETT holds authority to SIGN AT THE STUDIO, QUEEN'S ROAD, Nearly opposite the Houshouk Hotel.

Rojan, where there are also disputes between the villagers. Killa Shahr and Shahrwar have been occupied by the Afghans and have been plundered. The largest gathering now reported is in the direction of Chahar Khwar. Fakhri Khan has been killed. The Afghans are now rebuilding their fort in the Logar. Fakhri Khan and Amantulla Khan have been taken to Ghazni. Prisoners are being taken in Kabul, and the poorer classes are suffering from the want of food. The British have been ordered to leave the night of the 25th. Our native soldiers report meeting the fugitive near Khurd Kabul. Masim sold most of his property, but it seems as if he has a fair and honest sale, which he deposited in the British treasury last autumn. His ship's flight is a very objectionable, as he had all permission to go with all his belongings to Kandahar. The city people say that Hassan dived down the river, but rumors are circulating that he means to intrigue with the Ghilzais against our present settlement of Afghanistan.

It is reported that Abdul Rahman had arranged to start southwards on the 24th, and the Khilzais have been ordered to have supplies in readiness. Letters from the Sirdar to his friends state that it is not his intention to come further south than Kabul at present. Abdul Rahman has issued instructions to the Khilzais not to offer resistance to the British forces in Kohistan. Musa Jan, with an escort from Ghazni, has arrived in Tangi Wariel, and the British and the Logar, the elements are the presence of the Ghilzais among them, as they prevent money being made by sending supplies to us.

A good lady who, on the death of her husband, married his brother, has a portrait of the former hanging in her dining room. A visitor, remarking the painting, asked: "Is that a member of your family?" "Oh, that's my poor brother-in-law," was the ingenuous reply.

Admiral Gore Jones, C.B., Commander-in-Chief of the East India Station, is about to visit Madagascari in his flagship, and it is (says the Standard) hoped that, by his friendly offices, the difficulty which has arisen between the Governments of France and Madagascari may be adjusted.

A well-known London manager sometimes allows an aspiring young dramatist to bring him a new play, and after the reader has read it, the manager, after a moment's reflection, says, "I have three manuscripts on the fire, and the reading is usually discontinued—figure."
